G. A. R., for 1897, will be Held in this City.

A letter from J. C. Congdon, who is in attendance at the encampment at Long Prairie, announces that this city has been selected for the next meeting of that organization, and that officers have been elected as follows:

Commander—J. C. Congdon, Brainerd.

S. V.—Wm. C. Roberts, Detroit.

J. V.—C. H. Mir, Crookston.

Chaplain—H. A. Hall, Detroit.

Surgeon—J. C. Knight, Wadena.

Quartermaster—Joel Smith, Brainerd.

Chief Asst.—Z. V. Booth, Long

Prairie.

Adjutant—B. T. Butler, Brainerd.

This city council evidently proposes to see that the chief of police earns his salary, as they have given him instructions to arrest all persons owning dogs who have not paid the license on them after June 15th. Chief Stratton will have to swear in an army of officers if he rounds up the owners of unlicensed dogs at that time.

Wm. Cars have threatened the Methodist minister at Virginia for his successful efforts in stopping a price fight at that place. If the citizens of Virginia have any decency they will hunt these hounds down, give them a few short hours in what to leave town, and at the same time chip in liberally toward the preacher's salary.

On Tuesday morning news was received in Duluth of the death of John P. Stearns, which occurred in California, to which place he removed some two years ago for the purpose of improving his health.

St. Louis has been a city whose business and pleasure life is in the city of friends was as wide as the lot of any man possessed. Judge Stearns was personally known to many of our citizens as a man of integrity, honesty and ability.

Ten bicyclists of Brainerd have underaken to regulate the riding of wheels in this city so that they will not become a nuisance to the pedestrian. The city council were urged and petitioned to act at once and shut out all riding on sidewalks, but the better judgment prevailed, and with the understanding that the bicycle club would regulate and prosecute any violations, the matter was laid over for two weeks. If the owners of

In the Whirl of Politics.

Some of our Democratic friends are wondering if Bro. Stivers has deserted the ship in its hour of misery and distress.

The Cass county republican convention, to elect delegates to the state and congressional conventions, has been called for Monday, June 24th, at 4 o'clock p. m., at Collins.

The honest money Democrats are claiming the Minnesota delegation to the national convention, and Ramsey county leads off uncompromisingly against the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1. How does the Crow Wing county delegation stand on this matter?

A few newspaper men met in Minneapolis on Tuesday and organized the "Reform Press Association of Minnesota." The free silver and populist editors were there and Ignatius Donnelly spoke. Bro. Stivers was evidently too busy with his Crow

Wing county silver to attend.

It is more than likely that the Republican members of the house from the 46th district will be returned to the legislature at the coming election.

The record of no district is better and the members grained for themselves a reputation and standing that would materially aid them in the next session.

A statement has been made that the Sixth district delegates to the St.

Louis convention are pledged and Merrill Edmunds, of the First Congregational church, pronounced the words which joined in wedlock two of Brainerd's most popular young people, the bride being Miss Elizabeth L. Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson, of East Brainerd, and Henry R. White. The wedding, which is spoken of by those in attendance as one of the prettiest that has occurred in this city in many a day, took place at the residence of the bride's parents and was witnessed by a company of invited guests and more intimate friends of the contracting parties. Disastrous Fires.

On Monday morning at 2:45 o'clock the residence of Mrs. J. S. Ambly, at the corner of Seventh and Maple streets, was discovered to be on fire. J. C. Smallwood, who was engaged in moving his grocery stock to a new location during the night, saw smoke issuing from the roof, and his clerk, Wm. Moores, aroused the family who were sleeping, and but for his timely arrival it is quite probable that some of the members would have been suffocated, if not burned to death, and as it was Mrs. Ambly's hair was badly scorched before she escaped. The fire originated in the kitchen, but from what cause is not known, and had gained such headway that scarcely any of the contents were saved, all the clothing, furniture, etc., being consumed. The department was promptly on hand and rendered what service was possible under the circumstances. Cass. Jaichner, Mrs. Ambly's son, is a member of Hose Co. No. 1, and sleeps at the hose house, and he lost all his clothing which he kept at home. There was an insurance of $500 on the building and $300 on contents.
Louis Nelson, who lives some six miles west of Brainerd, on the Gull Lake road, suffered a severe loss on Tuesday by the burning of his barn and granary. Mr. Nelson was away from home at the time attending to his duties as assessor. The fire was started by the gentleman's little boy who lighted a match near a hay stack and the wind blew the flame into the hay. His granary contained several hundred bushels of corn and oats, which, together with the barn and its contents, a lumber wagon and other farm machinery, were entirely consumed. The dwelling house was only saved after a hard fight. The loss is a heavy one to Mr. Nelson, as he carried no insurance.

The Hog You Read About.
For a few days the first of the week a monster pig was on exhibition in a tent between Fourth and Fifth streets. The animal was raised in Crow Wing County by Mrs. Wm. Case, and is said to weigh 1310 pounds, and measures over six feet around near the front shoulders. It is of Poland China breed, and is two and a half years old. The animal is so fat it cannot stand on its hind legs and its sight is obscured.

THE ANNUAL TOURNAIMENT.
Final arrangements were completed on Friday evening last at a meeting held in the Chequatan Club rooms for the fifth annual tournament of the Brainerd Gun Club, the dates being fixed for July 10th and 11th. The arrangements for the shoot were left in the hands of the officers of the club, consisting of the following gentlemen: F. S. Parker, Dr. W. Courtney, Geo. D. LaBar, W. H. Mantor, A. E. Veon and Jas. R. Smith. The last tournament of the club was held on June 27th and 28th, 1895, and was one of the most successful ever held in the Northwest, and the visiting shooters voluntarily advanced the statement that they had been so well used and the tournament had been so well handled that they desired to go on record as stating they would all attend the '96 shoot if one was held, and they hoped it would be. There is no doubt but that even a larger number of shooters from abroad will be present than was here last year, and the club are figuring on a very successful time.

The arrangements for the shoot were left in the hands of the officers of the club, consisting of the following gentlemen: F. S. Parker, Dr. W. Courtney, Geo. D. LaBar, W. H. Mantor, A. E. Veon and Jas. R. Smith. The last tournament of the club was held on June 27th and 28th, 1895, and was one of the most successful ever held in the Northwest, and the visiting shooters voluntarily advanced the statement that they had been so well used and the tournament had been so well handled that they desired to go on record as stating they would all attend the '96 shoot if one was held, and they hoped it would be. There is no doubt but that even a larger number of shooters from abroad will be present than was here last year, and the club are figuring on a very successful time.

THE ANNUAL TOURNAIMENT.
Final arrangements were completed on Friday evening last at a meeting held in the Chequatan Club rooms for the fifth annual tournament of the Brainerd Gun Club, the dates being fixed for July 10th and 11th. JUNE WEDDINGS.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock Rev. T. Merrill Edmonds, of the First Congregational church, pronounced the words which joined in wedlock two of Brainerd's most popular young people, the bride being Miss Elizabeth L. Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson, of East Brainerd, and Henry R. White. The wedding, which is spoken of by those in attendance as one of the prettiest that has occurred in this city in many a day, took place at the residence of the bride's parents and was witnessed by a company of invited guests and more intimate friends of the contracting parties. The couple were unattended, and the bride looked her loveliest, being attired in a pink silk wedding gown. Following the ceremony came congratulations and a sumptuous wedding feast. On Thursday noon Mr. and Mrs. White left for Niles, Mich., and will also visit in Chicago and other cities before their return to Brainerd, which will be their future home. The bride is a very popular young lady, universally liked and respected by a host of friends, and for three years has been a successful teacher in the public schools of this city, having graduated with high honors in the class of '93.
The groom is an employee of the Northern Pacific road, holding a responsible position in the general offices of the company in this city.
Numerous rich and beautiful presents were tendered the couple by their admirers, many of whom attended them to the train on their departure, wishing them a pleasant journey and safe return.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Anna Murphy, of this city, to Mr. M. T. Dunn, a prominent business man of LeRoy, Minn.,

Catholic church. Music for the ceremony will be furnished by the church choir, assisted by W. H. Simmons and residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cullen, corner of Eighth and Kingwood

The Annual Tournament.

Final arrangements were completed on Friday evening last at a meeting held in the Chenquana Club rooms for the fifth annual tournament of the Brainerd Gun Club, the date being fixed for July 10th and 11th. The arrangements for the shoot were left in the hands of the officers of the club, consisting of the following gentlemen: F. S. Parker, Dr. W. Courtney, Geo. D. LaBar, W. H. Mantor, A. E.
Yeon and Jas. R. Smith. The last tournament of the club was held on June 27th and 28th, 1895, and was one of the most successful ever held in the Northwest, and the visiting shooters voluntarily advanced the statement that they had been so well used and the tournament had been so well hailed that they desired to go on record as stating they would all attend the '96 shoot if one was held—and they hoped it would be.
There is no doubt but that even a larger number of shooters from abroad will be present than was here last year, and the club are figuring on a very successful time.

On Saturday last the club gave a sweepstakes shoot which was quite well attended, the following being the score and per cent of birds broken.
The first, second and third events, as numbered at the top of the table, were ten singles, the fourth and fifth at ten unknown angles, the sixth at five pair, the seventh at fifteen singles, and the eighth at five wild:

Disasters Fires.

On Monday morning at 2:45 o'clock the residence of Mrs. J. S. Ambly, at the corner of Seventh and Maple streets, was discovered to be on fire.
J. C. Smallwood, who was engaged in moving his grocery stock to a new location during the night, saw smoke issuing from the roof, and his clerk, Wm. Moore, aroused the family who were sleeping, and but for his timely arrival it is quite probable that some of the members would have been suffocated, if not burned to death, and as it was Mrs. Ambly's hair was badly scorched before she escaped.
The fire originated in the kitchen, but from what cause is not known, and had gained such headway that scarcely any of the contents were saved, all the clothing, furniture, etc., being consumed. The department was promptly on hand and rendered what service was possible under the circumstances. Chas. Isachner, Mrs.
Ambly's son, is a member of Hose Co.
No. 1, and sleeps at the home house, and he lost all his clothing, which he kept at home. There was an insurance of $500 on the building and $300 on contents.

Louis Nelson, who lives some six miles west of Brainerd, on the Gull Lake road, suffered a severe loss on Tuesday by the burning of his barn and grary. Mr. Nelson was away from home at the time attending to his duties as assessor. The fire was started by the gentleman's little boy who lighted a match near a hay stack and the wind blew the flame into the hay. His granary contained several hundred bushels of corn and oats, which, together with the barn and its contents, a lumber wagon and other farm machinery, were entirely consumed. The dwelling house was only saved after a hard fight. The loss is a heavy one to Mr. Nelson, as he carried no insurance.

The Hog You Read About.

For a few days the first of the week a monster pig was on exhibition in a tent between Fourth and Fifth streets. The animal was raised in Crow Wing County by Mrs. Wm.
Case, and is said to weigh 1310 pounds, and measures over six feet around near the front shoulders. It is of Poland China breed, and is two and a half years old. The animal is so fat it cannot stand on its hind legs and its sight is obscured.
